MEMORANDUM FOR THE HEADS OF

DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES

The President has directed that during the 30-day period of mourning for President Kennedy there shall be no partisan political speeches of any sort by members of the Administration. Subject to the personal preference and feelings of individual members of the Administration, however, it is the President's belief that President Kennedy would wish the Administration to go forward with planned appearances on non-partisan occasions, unless there is some specific aspect of the occasion which makes it appear more appropriate or desirable to cancel the engagement. The President prefers to respect the judgment of individual members of the Administration on such decisions.
